Cool harvest, cool character. This is a real New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc from the Wairau Valley. The main characters are gooseberry, with dominant passionfruit with lime and nettle. It is a vibrant, fruity wine with long after taste. It is for the Sauvignon Blanc fans.

Kislaki Kötcse Olasz 2022/ Balatonboglár, Szőlőskislak

11 990 Ft/bottle

This is the selection of the Kötcse vineyard slope. This Olaszrizling was harvested from the best and the highest parts of the slope. The wine was fermented with wild yeast and aged in 2000 litres cigar types of oak barrels. The result is a creamy, long and off-dry; a real big Olaszrizling.

St.Andrea Mária 2022/ Eger, Egerszalók

29 990 Ft/bottle

Ripe and exotic fruitiness, papaya, pineapple and mango bursts out of the glass. In the background, the calcareous minerality of Nagy-Eged-hegy. A full-bodied wine with a lively acidity and lots of fruit: peach, pineapple, gooseberry. A salty flavour closes the end of the sip, which is rounded off by the notes of barrel aging. Long-lasting, large-format wine with great aging potential.

Fehérvári Hárslevelű Reserve 2022/ Nagy-Somló, Somlószőlős

11 990 Ft/bottle

This family-owned winery has been making wine since 1545. Couple of years ago they started a collaboration with a new wine making consultant and by now they produce premium quality wines and sparkling wines. Great results are already coming in and based on this collaboration the future of the winery has a big potential.

This dry white wine is elegant, has some oily texture and a good balance. It is complex, exiting and a memorable wine, made from a popular grape variety.

Bott Csontos 2021 / Tokaj, Bodrogkeresztúr

17 990 Ft/bottle

The Bott winery is a very small family winery in Bodrogkeresztúr, they use organic methods only. Before coming to work in Tokaj wine region Judit Bott learned the art of winemaking in Italy. This wine is a Furmint, from the Csontos vineyard slope, which always produces very structured, rich, well aging wines. We have in our cellar from the 2015 vintage which is very lively wine. In the year 2021 the flowering began very late, and because of that wines have very long acidity.

This wine shows perfectly what the dry characteristics of the Furmint are.

Lenkey Korposd-Betsek 2017/ Tokaj, Mád

22 990 Ft/bottle

Minimal technology, 2 steel tanks and a press. Everything is natural. They do not use any chemicals.

A cold cellar and a fully ripened, careful harvest usually result in items that can be aged very well.

The wine was made from grapes harvested from the Betsek vineyard, unofficially named Korposd, after aging for 3.5 years in barrels and 3 years in bottles. 1279 bottles were made from it. The wine is still young, from an excellent vintage, it has long, never-ending acids which keep its fruitiness long after tasting, it is a carefully polished great wine.

Vörösborok – Red Wines

Miklós Csabi Siller 2023/ Mór

10 990 Ft/bottle

Those ripe red fruits. Cherry, sour cherry, they focus on fruitiness. One wide sip has a long finish. Plenty of stone fruits in the aroma of a single sip. It doesn't taste like jam yet, but it's compote-like. Originated from the country's smallest wine region, it is a wine that is not yet red, but not rosé anymore. Siller is a great but forgotten traditional wine type, a real red wine for the summer.

Orsolya Kadarka 2# 2022/ Eger, Ostoros

17 990 Ft/bottle

This winery is a small family cellar basically performing a one man show, in Ostoros Village. They follow traditions and all of their products are handmade.

The Kadarka is a traditional, but very sensitive grape variety. This wine comes from several vineyard slopes and has several Kadarka clone-types. The wine was fermented with wild yeast. The wine is a fruit bomb and has lively acids; it is a light drinkable dry wine.

The more than 20-year-old cellar has become the most famous property in Eger. Today, the second generation is making their honest, crystal clear, deep wines together. Its white and red wines and Grand Superior wines are world class. One of the most important wines of the winery, a blend showing the entire estate, different areas, vineyards, soils, varieties, and barrels. Kékfrankos provides the base, complemented by cabernet franc, merlot, pinot noir and syrah. Each batch is aged in 5 hectolitre barrels for 15 months before blending. Its intense and lively aroma shows aromas of lots of fruits and spices, cherries, plums, black cherries, cloves, and cinnamon.

Bukolyi Kékfrankos Nagy-Eged Grand Superior 2021/ Eger

21 990 Ft/bottle

This wine shows what happens, when a traditional Hungarian red grape the Kékfrankos meets a young but very talented winemaker on the highest and best slopes of the legendary Nagy-Eged Hill. This wine represents how remarkable this variety can be in good hands. This wine is rich, deep, but not exaggerated, ripped but not over ripped. This is the first Kékfrankos from the cellar.

Bukolyi Egri Bikavér Nagy Eged Grand Superior 2021/ Eger

20 990 Ft/bottle

Bukolyi Marcell is one of the most talented winemakers in the region, he has 14 hectares of organic vineyards. This wine is the flagship of the winery, showing the essence of the vineyard. This is the first organic Grand Superior Egri Bikavér ever produced. The wine has a fruity character, it is structured, complex and has a very long aftertaste. The grape was harvested exclusively from the Nagy Eged vineyard slope. It is an unfiltered, unclear bio wine containing very low sulphur.

Jammertal Premium Onyx 2019/ Villány

14 990 Ft/bottle

The wine is the entry-level offering from the Bordeaux blends of the cellar, with an emphasis on Cabernet Sauvignon. It is an elegant wine with a cooler style, distinct from Villány wines. Rich yet not overwhelming, it has everything we expect from a Village Bordeaux, with balanced tannins. Its acidity maintains a long-lasting cool elegance. An absolute best by Bordeaux cuvée. It still has years of potential ahead, but it already offers a great experience alongside rich meat.

Riczu Super Prémium Cabernet Franc 2019/ Villány

24 990 Ft/bottle

The wine is a selection of the Landord vineyard slope with the best Cabernet Franc. It is unfiltered, aged in 300 oak barrels. The wine is deep, dense, spicy with much of fruity, but with light, drinkable character, with velvety tannins. The loess soil and the south part of Balaton side help very much for this character.

Bodrog Borműhely Mesés 2019/ Bodrogkeresztúr

13 990 Ft/bottle

This wine is from a very small winery in Bodrogkeresztúr. It is a sweet wine made of noble, late harvested grape which partly contains botrytis. The residual sugar is in beautiful balance with the acidity. The taste shows some pear, honey, sun dried fruits and a touch of woody character.

Bodrog Borműhely 6 Puttonyos Aszú 2013/Bodrogkeresztúr

27 990 Ft/bottle

It is the famous and absolutely exceptional Aszú wine which comes from the unique volcanic hill soil. 2013 was a very good, hot and dry year, provided a late and long Aszú harvest. The wine was only made from hand-picked, noble, late harvested botrytis grape. It was aged for 24 months in Hungarian wood barrels. This Aszú has a very rich, long aftertaste showing pineapple, peach, fine spices. It is a beautifully balanced sweet wine with very long acidity, which brings harmony into this wine. It is not just a sweet wine; it is delicate, elegant and brilliant.

Thanks to the traditional approach, the method of harvest and the exceptional grape this is the elixir of Tokaj; tasting it will provide an exceptional experience you will never forget.

Holdvölgy Signature Furmint 2010/ Mád

16 990 Ft/bottle

From a distinctly cool, barely Aszú-producing vintage. Rich and fresh botrytis scent dominated by honey and dried apricots, accompanied by white-petaled flowers and citrus. Dried apricots are also the first to come in the taste, complemented by royal jelly, figs and mushroom like, woody notes. Real individuality, with an elegant acid-sugar balance. Everything you would expect from a Tokaj sweet wine.

A unique wine, in which essentially zeta szamorodni, 6 Puttonyos Aszú and essence work together. This item has the intrinsic value of a 5- Puttonyos Aszú, but still stretching its boundaries and reinterpreting it.

Holdvölgy Intuition No.1 Zéta Szamorodni 2008/Mád

16 990 Ft/bottle

This wine was made also with a very unique method; they harvested all cluster with healthy and botrytis berries together, that is called the Szamorodni (szamo rodni in Slavic means how it was born) wine. It is not so sweet, because the balance of acidity and sweetness always to go a little bit to the acidity by the Szamorodni. This wine is even more unique, because it is made only from Zéta grape variety, which is the 5th most important grape in Tokaj. The concentration of tastes is similar to the 6 p. Aszú, but it has a much lighter character, it shows much more spices, with some orange and orange peel and passion fruit. This is also a beautifully aged sweet wine.
