This family-owned winery has been making wine since 1545. Couple of years ago they started a collaboration with a new wine making consultant and by now they produce premium quality wines and sparkling wines. Great results are already coming in and based on this collaboration the future of the winery has a big potential.

This dry white wine is elegant, has some oily texture and a good balance. It is complex, exiting and a memorable wine, made from a popular grape variety.

Bott Csontos 2021 / Tokaj, Bodrogkeresztúr 15 990 Ft/bottle

The Bott winery is a very small family winery in Bodrogkeresztúr, they use organic methods only. Before coming to work in Tokaj wine region Judit Bott learned the art of winemaking in Italy. This wine is a Furmint, from the Csontos vineyard slope, which always produces very structured, rich, well aging wines. We have in our cellar from the 2015 vintage which is very lively wine. In the year 2021 the flowering began very late, and because of that wines have very long acidity.

This wine shows perfectly what the dry characteristics of the Furmint are.

Kősziklás Rajnai Rizling 2017/ Ászár-Neszmély, Dunaszentmiklós 14 990 Ft/bottle

Tucked away in the Neszmély wine region, this charming cellar is a true hidden gem. Its treasures lie in elegant white wines of remarkable depth and grace. This Riesling beautifully embodies the cellar's character — mature and refined, with delicate petrol notes and a lingering, memorable finish. A wine of quiet sophistication and timeless balance.

Lenkey Korposd-Betsek 2017/ Tokaj, Mád 16 990 Ft/bottle

Minimal technology, 2 steel tanks and a press. Everything is natural. They do not use any chemicals. A cold cellar and a fully ripened, careful harvest usually result in items that can be aged very well.

The wine was made from grapes harvested from the Betsek vineyard, unofficially named Korposd, after aging for 3.5 years in barrels and 3 years in bottles. 1279 bottles were made from it. The wine is still young, from an excellent vintage, it has long, never-ending acids which keep its fruitiness long after tasting, it is a carefully polished great wine.

Rosé bor – Rosé Wine

Jammertal Grand Rosé Pinot Noir 2024/ Villány, Siklós 9 990 Ft/bottle

An extremely elegant wine made from 100% Pinot Noir. It opens with a hint of raspberry on the palate, which gradually transitions into strawberry toward the finish, ending with a subtle, pleasantly bitter note reminiscent of strawberry seeds — making it an excellent thirst-quencher. It has a long, lingering aftertaste. The wine's uniqueness is enhanced by its elegant presentation: it comes in a beautifully designed bottle sealed with a glass stopper. A true summer wine from Villány.

Miklós Csabi Siller 2023/ Mór 9 990 Ft/bottle

Those ripe red fruits. Cherry, sour cherry, they focus on fruitiness. One wide sip has a long finish. Plenty of stone fruits in the aroma of a single sip. It doesn't taste like jam yet, but it's compote-like. Originated from the country's smallest wine region, it is a wine that is not yet red, but not rosé anymore. Siller is a great but forgotten traditional wine type, a real red wine for the summer.

Vörösbork – Red Wines

Pécsinger Vörös Csibész 2024/ Pannonhalma

10 990 Ft/bottle

Who said red wine has to be serious? Well, this one certainly doesn't. It's a fruit bomb you simply can't resist. You'll fall in love instantly with its light yet substantial flavour.

Made using reductive winemaking technology, it's a Cabernet Franc-dominated blend with fruity Merlot. A bombastic red from a multi-generational cellar in Pannonhalma.

Orsolya Kadarka 2023/ Eger, Ostoros

15 990 Ft/bottle

This winery is a small family cellar basically performing a one man show, in Ostoros Village. They follow traditions and all of their products are handmade.

The Kadarka is a traditional, but very sensitive grape variety. This year the wine comes from several vineyard slopes and has several Kadarka clone-types. The wine was fermented with wild yeast. The wine is a fruit bomb and has lively acids; it is a light drinkable dry wine.

St.Andrea Hangács Grand Superior Bikavér 2022/ Eger, Egerszalók

24 990 Ft/bottle

Among the winery's many excellent Bikavérs, this one may currently be in its finest form. Every component of this cuvée comes exclusively from the Hangács vineyard. A complex, single-vineyard Egri Bikavér with a long, refined finish.

On the nose, black berry fruits are interwoven with earthy, volcanic forest floor notes. Aromas of blackberry, blackcurrant, pine resin, leaf litter, chili, and chocolate emerge in layers. An elegant and sophisticated red wine.

Steigler Prémium Kékfrankos 2021/ Sopron

13 990 Ft/bottle

An organic winery from Sopron crafting remarkable wines, primarily from mica-schist-rich vineyards. This wine is made from Hungary's flagship grape variety, sourced from the exceptional Sporn Steiner vineyard.

On the palate, barrel spices, tobacco, bitter chocolate, and sour cherry take the lead.

Lush structure with pleasant minerality and a long finish. Arguably one of the most noteworthy expressions of Kékfrankos."

Jammertal Onyx 2019/ Villány

15 990 Ft/bottle

The wine is the entry-level offering from the Bordeaux blends of the cellar, with an emphasis on Cabernet Sauvignon. It is an elegant wine with a cooler style, distinct from Villány wines. Rich yet not overwhelming, it has everything we expect from a Village Bordeaux, with balanced tannins. Its acidity maintains a long-lasting cool elegance. An absolute best by Bordeaux cuvée. It still has years of potential ahead, but it already offers a great experience alongside rich meat.

Riczu Super Prémium Cabernet Franc 2019/ Villány

16 990 Ft/bottle

The wine is a selection of the Landord vineyard slope with the best Cabernet Franc. It is unfiltered, aged in 300 oak barrels. The wine is deep, dense, spicy with much of fruity, but with light, drinkable character, with velvety tannins. The loess soil and the south part of Balaton side help very much for this character.

Mikóczi Cabernet Sauvignon 2019/ Szekszárd, Bába

15 990 Ft/bottle.

Mikóczi Winery was founded 15 years ago. This wine is made by this small winery working with 4 hectares of vineyards. The wine was aged for 12 months in Hungarian 225 litres oak barrels. It has tastes of tobacco smoke, coffee roast aromas and black berries. It is a bodied red wine with long aftertaste.

Haraszty Öreghegy Pinot Noir 2019/Etyek-Buda

14 990 Ft/bottle

This variety has truly found a home in the Etyek-Buda wine region-Budapest's vineyard garden. The winery's Hungarian owners also have estates in Argentina.

This wine is a remarkable Burgundian-style Pinot Noir, showing earthy, forest floor notes with beautiful maturity, delicate spiciness, and the vibrant acidity typical of the variety.

A must-try for any Pinot Noir lover

Ruppert Merlot 2018/ Villány, Babarcszőlő

15 990 Ft/bottle

Young, organic winery in Villány. They are making aged, concentrated wines, they would like show the really face of the region. The grape comes from the last hill slope of Villány.
